

The receiver control head should be mounted at chest Height and at least 40CM away from the heater and any other heat or cold sources.